Then the USA Civil War of 1861 to 1865, when the Camp Floyd & Col Albert Sidney Johnston Soldiers were called by Pres. Abraham Lincoln back east to fight with the North against the South in that terrible conflict..

During the Civil War, in 1862, two Companies of the Nauvoo Legion were called to protect the mail routes thru the mountains of Utah.

Then upon the heels of the Civil War, began the Black Hawk War of 10th April 1865 which lasted thru 20th Aug 1867, mainly in Severe, Piute and Sanpete and even into Washington Counties.

548
1857 Then, 2500 Well-equipped U.S. Federal Troops were being sent by Pres. James Buchanan to put down the "Mormon <sup>Insurrection</sup> Isurrection," later called the "Echo Utah War!"

(Col. Albert Sidney Johnston's Army arrived at Echo Canyon Sep 1857).

Next, came the rumblings of US Civil War which began 12 Apr 1861 at Fort Sumpter.

Next, Abraham Lincoln called Johnston's Army back to the States to fight with the North against the South in 1861, and his Army left many supplies, wagons the teams etc. to be used by the settlers.

Next, in August of 1861, Lincoln called the 3rd California Infantry, under command of Col. Patrick Edward Connor, and the 2nd California Cavalry under the command of Major Edward McGary to combine under Col. Connor and march to Utah. They left Benecia Barracks on East San Francisco Bay on 12 July 1862 and arrived in SLCU 9th Sep 1862 to take the place of the Johnston's Army. Connor refused using Fort Crittenden, declaring it inadequate. So he set up Camp Douglas on the east Salt Lake foothills to overwatch the City, and it's people. This became known as the 700 California Volunteers of Col. Connor.

Next, 29th Jan 1863, 200 of Col. Patrick Edward Connors's troops defeated a band of about 400 Shoshonis on Bear Creek on the Bear River. Massacre

With NO war to fight with the Mormons, Connor allowed his men to take leave and prospect for precious metals in the hills of Utah--hence he became known as the Father of Mining in Utah.

On 26 May 1865, the Given Family were massacred in Indianola Utah near Massacre Thistle Utah.

At various times, Connor's men were taken on maneuvers into the Wasatch Mountains, and records and pictures of them are of record in places in Parley's Canyon and in Wasatch County....Bivouacs in the meadow east of American Flag Butte in Hailstone, then near Mill-B on the Strawberry River and in Midway's Soldier Spring Area....now known as Soldier Hollow, and at Soldier Creek in East Strawberry Valley.
